– While enthusiasm was mighty high during the Democratic National Convention, optimism needs to be tempered with realism. One issue of concern needs to be stopping election fraud. You can get all the votes you need, but that isn't enough. We at Climate Today have seen the documentary Stealing America– Vote by Vote. Simple, quick, untraceable manipulation of electronic voting can literally get any election result desired with just a quick fix. We have consulted with top-level computer experts and this, indeed, is easy to do. This is extremely serious! Hear what Ion Sancho has to say. You can check for public showings, and buy a copy for just $5.00. Get smart and work with others to prevent such techniques from happening. – Editor
